

On the second floor are two rooms with two beds each.

Each house has its own balcony and porch with a beautiful view. Room for up to 7 persons.

Down stairs is living room, kitchen and bathroom with shower.

Ptarmigan hunting

- Hunting season is 6 weekends in October to December, Friday to Sunday, total 18 days.
- Sustainable, but we need to be extra careful.

Ptarmigan hunting

Problems

- The ptarmigan has a ten year population cycle
- The government decides hunting days in a short notice.
- Local hunters want to sit alone at the shooting.
- Protected areas are always getting bigger and bigger.
- Few hunting days, many hunters.

Seabird hunting

- Season from 20th of August to 10th of May.
- Sustainable. Huge stock.
- Special for Iceland

Seabird hunting

Problems.

- Not allowed for foreigners.
- Puffins are beautiful but very good to eat.
- Big difference in the stock between years.

Goose hunting

- Season from 20th of August to 15th of Mars.(leave at the end of October)
- Sustainable but we have to be careful.
- Plenty of pink footed goose. Huge stock
- Special for Iceland.

Goose hunting

Problems

- Almost no hunting within 50 km from Mjóeyri.
- Farmers are charging more and more for each field.
- Protected areas are getting bigger and bigger.

Arctic fox hunting

- Season from 1st of August to 30th of April. The rest of the year are special hired hunters from the community.
- Sustainable, but in Iceland we are willing to keep the stock low.

Arctic fox hunting

Problems.

- Almost no tradition for tourist hunting.
- The government and the community change the rules between years.
- Other hunters can attract your bait.

Reindeer hunting

- Season from 15th of July to 20th of September.
- Sustainable. Special quota for each area.
- Very well organised by the reindeer organisation.
- You need guide to hunt reindeer in Iceland.
- Big trophy.

Reindeer hunting

Problems

- There are not too many reindeer in Iceland and they are only in the east part.
- More than two hunters want to hunt every deer every year.
- Quota is decided year by year and the lottery opens in February.
- Difficult for foreigners to get in the lottery.

